Frozen in Flight Bird Taxidermy Terms and Contract Agreement: “We” refers to Frozen In Flight Bird Taxidermy, LLC in the following paragraphs. We have no control over the specimen, nor the many factors which have a very definite effect on the final result of dressing prior to it being received by us. These include, but are not limited to: primeness, general condition of specimen, climatic condition, bacterial infestation, decomposition, chemical reactions, and most importantly, the lack of knowledge and facilities in the field by the sportsman. We cannot guarantee the results of any mounted specimen. Also, we are not responsible for the loss due to freezer failure, power failure, natural disaster, theft, or any other loss beyond our control. Client understands and agrees that estimated completion time is an estimate only. Client agrees that quality of work takes precedence over quoted completion time. A 50% deposit will be placed on all specimens and projects due to handling, storage, and skin preparation. The deposit is non refundable for any reason. The customer agrees to pay the balance and remove the mount from our studio within thirty (30) days of notification by us that the work has been completed. If the completed work is not picked up in that time, a storage fee of $3.00/day will be added to the Final Balance Due. Any and all work due to backlog will not be finished prior to its position that it was received in unless otherwise authorized. No mounts will be shipped until 100% payment plus fees has been remitted. Please keep all phone calls/emails pertaining to completion to a minimum, as it restricts our ability to complete projects in a timely manner. Clients will be notified by phone or email of completed projects. In addition to the rights granted to us under the Artisan's Lien Law of the State of Va, we shall have the right to college the balance of the account be action at law. The customer agrees that if the balance is collected by an attorney, by suit, or otherwise, they will pay all fees and costs of the collection. Failure to pick up the mount after one month of completion/notification may result in destruction of mount in order to recover supplies, or the mount shall become property of Frozen in Flight Bird Taxidermy, LLC. We are not responsible for the condition of frozen, salted, or fresh skins or feathers at time of receipt. By signing below, the client agrees to all of the above.
